AMENDED DESIGNATION OF RECORD ON APPEAL
BY APPELLANT ROBERT K. ALBER, ETOYS SHAREHOLDER

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8006 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Appellant, Robert K. Alber, eToys Shareholder and Pro Se (ALBER), hereby designates the following items and documents be included in the Record on Appeal, with respect to my "Intent to Appeal Notice" dated October 14th, 2005, with the 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals for the District of Delaware as my requested venue. Appellant, Alber, also Respectfully Requests that this Appeal be heard in oral argument under Bankruptcy Rule 8012. In accordance with my understanding of Bankruptcy Rule 8012, I shall file a separate brief with the Clerk detailing my reasons in support of oral argument.

As there are, at this time, 2380 Dockets in this (consolidated) eToys Bankruptcy Case No. 01-0706. Whereas Appellant has made a thorough examination of the complete Docket list in this case, with the sheer number of Dockets involved Appellant may have inadvertently excluded from inclusion into this Designation of Documents certain Dockets which are essential to Appellant's Claims against Appellees and for this Court to correctly assess this Appeal. Therefore, Appellant does reserve the right to submit other Dockets, in accordance with this Court's Rules of Order, at a later date.

Designation of Documents and Submissions

The Opinion of the Court, by Her Honor Walrath, on these issues dated October 4, 2005.

The Orders of the Court, by Her Honor Walrath, on these issues dated October 4, 2005.

Filing(s) by the U.S. Trustee, Kelley Stapleton, detailing TBF and Gold's pattern of failing to Disclose their relationships during the eToys Bankruptcy case, which I joined in part, and objected to in part.

Relevant Court filings in the Finova Bankruptcy Case showing the non-disclosed relationships between MNAT and others directly related to our case.

Transcript of the March 1st, 2005, Court Hearing in the eToys Bankruptcy Case.

Transcript of the February 1st, 2005, Court Hearing in the eToys Bankruptcy Case.

Transcript of the December 22nd, 2004, Court Hearing in the eToys Bankruptcy Case.

Transcript of the Deposition of Barry F. Gold, CEO/President/Plan Administrator of eToys on February 9th, 2005, held in conjunction with the eToys Bankruptcy Case at the direction of Her Honor Walrath, showing, among other things, that Barry Gold is and has been an employee of TBF, and under direct, actual TBF direction, prior to and during his tenure as Wind-down Coordinator/President/CEO of eToys, prior to the Plan being approved by Her Honor Walrath.

Transcript of the Deposition of Michael S. Fox, ESQ, TBF, on February 9th, 2005, held in conjunction with the eToys Bankruptcy Case at the direction of Her Honor Walrath.

Transcript of the Deposition of Paul Traub, ESQ, TBF, on February 9th, 2005, held in conjunction with the eToys Bankruptcy Case at the direction of Her Honor Walrath.

Transcript of the Deposition of Michael G. Busenkell, ESQ, MNAT, on February 9th, 2005, held in conjunction with the eToys Bankruptcy Case at the direction of Her Honor Walrath, showing that Mr. Busenkell has no regard and/or understanding of Rules governing attorney ethics in Federal Bankruptcy Court, that MNAT as a whole does not require attorney members of the MNAT Firm to know relevant, required, Law governing attorney ethics and Disclosure requirements, and other issues.

Documentation showing that the formation of ADA was by a third party, yet to be named, and not as a sole business venture between Barry Gold and Paul Traub (by their testimony).

Documentation from the New York Secretary of State's Office showing Traub, Bonacquist & Fox, LLP, has not been a Corporation in Good Standing in the State of New York since early in these eToys Bankruptcy proceedings, thereby bringing into question all fee applications filed by TBF under Rule 2016 and others. Their Corporate LLP status had been revoked on 2002-03-27.

Response by Barry Gold of January 25, 2005.

Response of the Post Effective Date Committee ("PEDC") of January 25, 2005

Response of TBF on January 25, 2005.

Motion(s) of Haas/CLI to disqualify & disgorge.

Motion(s) of Robert Alber to disqualify & disgorge.

US Trustee Motion to Settle TBF issue(s) of February 25, 2005.

All evidence introduced during the March 1st, 2005, Hearing before the Honorable Judge Mary F. Walrath.

Court allowed Deposition transcripts of Barry Gold (sic), Michael Fox, ESQ, Paul Traub, ESQ, and Michael Busenkell, taken February 9th, 2005.

Evidence submitted during the aforementioned Depositions taken February 9th, 2005.

Docket Text: VOLUNTARY Petition Under Chapter 11 W/List of Creditors Holding 30 Largest Unsecured Claims , [LL], ORIGINAL NIBS DOCKET ENTRY #1

While this list of documents and submissions may seem lengthy to some, the issues at hand and the seriousness of my allegations detailing a pattern of abuse from the beginning of this eToys Bankruptcy case, by virtually all Parties in control of this case and the eToys Estate, demands that such extreme actions be undertaken. Additionally, I submit that 'extraordinary circumstances' have occurred, as described by Chief Federal Judge Walrath in her October 4th, 2005, Opinion (of which certain parts thereof are the subject of this Appeal), and must needs demand that all facets of this case must be taken into account to arrive at a Just decision since a) this pattern of abuse started well before the Plan of Reorganization was approved by the Court, b) Appellees have already admitted to certain crimes and been found guilty of others, c) the ramifications and damages suffered by me, and which are derived from this abuse, will continue until the closing of this case, and finally d) this conduct by Appellees is willful and malicious in its intent. As many of the issues I've raised deal with Conflicts of Interests, and willful lack of Disclosure, and have been thus far found to be with willful intent to commit fraud upon the Court and the (eToys) Estate, and that such 'goes to the heart of the integrity of the bankruptcy system', this is justification for the amount of time and effort that must be expended investigating these issues by this Court.

If Appellant should find, while assembling this mass of documents, that Appellant has inadvertently included any duplications, Appellant will notice the Court and all parties.

Furthermore, several items need to be mentioned at this point. Namely:

1. I am a 'Party of Interest' as previously ruled by Her Honor Walrath, and as described in the eToys Plan of Reorganization and Disclosure Statement.
2. The 'releases' and 'injunctions' indemnifying those running the Estate, and/or associated with it, were struck down in a hearing before Her Honor Walrath, and other reasons why 'releases' and 'injunctions' do not indemnify the Appellees are detailed in Her Honor Walrath's Opinion of October 4th, 2005.

4. Harassment by associates of certain Appellees notwithstanding, Appellant will make all attempts to comply with deadlines in this Appeal. If continued harassment by associates of Appellees and intrusion into Appellant's private life continue, unabated, Appellant will forthwith notify this Court and request relief from such behind-the-scenes tactics meant to thwart Justice.

Whereas Appellant does state that a copy of this document is executed this 13th day of September, 2006, and sent via courier to be received by the Clerk of the Court in the Federal District of Delaware for docket submission on September 13th, 2006, in accordance with Appeal Rules 8000 thru 8009.

Dated: Wednesday, September 13th, 2006

Respectfully Submitted,

Robert K. Alber, Pro Se
